

International Folk Dance at the RG

Learning dances is one way to keep mentally fit, and it's fun as well. At the upcoming RG, local member Tom Ott has offered to teach international folk dancing.

He started folk dancing in 1978 and is a leader of two international dance groups in the Detroit area.

It is not necessary to have any experience or to have a partner, and perfection is not expected.

Tom will teach beginner dances from a variety of countries such as France, Israel, Greece, Portugal, Bulgaria, and Hungary.
